

SCIENCE & RELIGION
PAPER 2, ROUND 3
Final version

1 Revising

You should have received, via the shared Google Drive folder for this assignment, the two reviews from your fellow students (named `reviewed-1.pdf` and `reviewed-2.pdf`). Use these reviews, as well as your own thoughts, to revise your paper. You may change as much or as little as you think is best to create a final version of the paper that effectively communicates your ideas.

Remember that you do not need to address every point raised in each review. For some of the points, you may decide that the reviewer was mistaken in a way that other readers are unlikely to be; you may disagree with a reviewer's suggestion. Ultimately, the reviews are opportunities to reconsider any and all elements of what you have written, noting that even a mistaken reviewer may be calling attention to an element of your paper that needs improvement.

2 Submitting your work

When you have completed your final draft, please create a PDF named `final.pdf`, and upload that to your shared Google Drive folder.

This assignment is due on Tuesday, Oct-31, 11:59 pm.
